Bug life

Yay! The season of deer flies is done but a new villain has arisen, mosquito, but these blood sucking bullies are so much more than tiny black spots. By more I mean more mosquitos!

Mervin's Meditation

Take 4 deep in and out breaths. Slowly, your body will begin to relax. Let go of your fear, hate, and anger. Start to focus on your surroundings. Maybe you are in your living room. You might see a couch, a fireplace, or a chair. Or maybe you are outside. You might see a tree, a bird, or a pretty flower. Now pretend you are grasping a star. It goes through your hand and into your body. It leaves a trace of tingles. Now imagine-SLOWLY the tingle travels throughout your whole body. From the tips of your fingers, to the end of your toes. We end this as we started. Four. Deep. Breaths.
